ALGOOD, ROUTE 2
Dear Herald Readers: Will you let a lonely little girl join your happy circle.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Deck, Dec. 8, and claimed for its victim their loving mother, Mrs. Burton. She has many dear friends to mourn her loss. She will be greatly missed in this community, but God knows best.

Misses Abbie and Ada Whiteaker spent Saturday night at Lee Walker's.

Uncle Perry Warren died, Dec. 6. Will ask for a shower of birthday cards for my little friend Arvil Whiteaker, Algood, Tenn., Dec. 28.

JACKSON—McDANIEL
Beecher Jackson went to Putnam county, Monday, returning Tuesday with his bride, who was Miss Bertha McDaniels. Having married Tuesday morning, they came on to the home of the groom's father, where a beautiful dinner awaited them. They were accompanied by Messrs. McDaniels and Jaquess of Putnam county. The others who were lucky enough to partake of the good dinner were: Dr. and Mrs. Bradley and little son, Mrs. Joe Hampton and daughters, Misses Lillie, Amanda and Laura; Mrs. Dorcas Boyd, H. V. Boyd and little daughter, Alma; Joe Dibrell Hampton, Lynnwood Finley. Will Jackson and wife and little son, Garrett; Misses Viola Lamb and Belle England. The dining room was decorated beautifully. All present enjoyed the occasion greatly. The groom is the handsome son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Jackson of this place, a soldier who recently returned from overseas, and since his return has been working in Akron, Ohio, until just before his marriage. The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. S. N. McDaniels of Putnam county. We wish them a long and happy life together.—Sparta News.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary Society met with Mrs. Rogers, Misses Robinson and Evans, at the Boys' dormitory, T. P. L., Monday, Dec. 8 at 2:30 o'clock.

As this was a business meeting the president, Mrs. Sisk, presided and also had the devotional exercise. The Bible lesson and comment were interesting and instructive. Superintendents of the different departments gave reports. The local treasurer, Mrs. Massa, gave a most gratifying report of the Thanksgiving offering which will be used for local charity.

This was the meeting for the election of officers, and as the present officers have proven themselves so efficient they were all unanimously re-elected, as follows: Mrs. T. K. Sisk, president; Mrs. A. P. Walker, vice president; Mrs. Minnie Barbour, vice pres.; Mrs. W. O. Watson, treasurer; Mrs. O. D. Massa, Cor. Sec.; Mrs. D. E. Slagle, Rec. Sec.; Mrs. J. M. Dowell, Supt. of Supplies; Mrs. R. M. Greenwood, Supt. of Social Service; Miss Leona Byrne, Supt. of Publicity.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served a delightful salad course. They were assisted in serving by little Misses Elizabeth Rogers, Wattie and Julia Kirkman.

Our next meeting will be Jan. 5, 1920, at which time the new officers will be installed.

DAYTON, OHIO

It is beginning to get cool up here, but we haven't had any snow yet.

Wonder if Burke Smith is still swinging Tilda Lee. I was aiming to send her a birthday card but forgot it until it was too late.

I sure would like to see all the boys and girls back in Tennessee, but I guess I won't get to until next summer.

I see Alex Allen in Dayton one day and the next day he is home. He must have lots of money to ride the train so much.

Mr. Lamb says tell you all he would see you all in the Nashville funny paper.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT

Cookeville, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

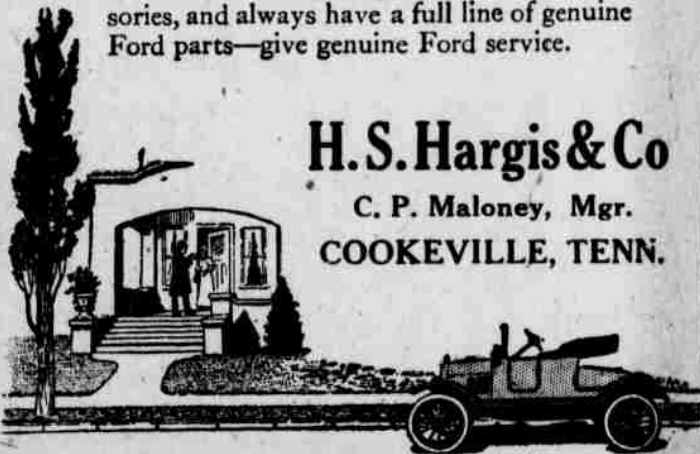

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the torture of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Cookeville evidence of their merit.

W. M. Lee, Oak St., says: "My back ached considerably and there was soreness over my kidneys. My kidneys acted too frequently and the secretions were scanty. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed. Doan's were just what I needed and soon my kidneys were regulated. The aches and pains left and my back is now strong and well."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lee had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
